Invite for Study/ Research Projects

Indian Society of Management Accountants (ISMA) invites the requests from CMA/MBA students or Academicians of reputed Management Institutes/ Colleges to carry out joint study/ research projects in the areas of financial and business management with specific focus to the application of Management Accounting tools and techniques.

In recent past, ISMA has successfully completed two projects with groups of MBA students in the following two areas:

1. Cost Management in Indian Industry
2. Private Equity in India

You may refer the above projects under the Downloads section on ISMA website www.cmaonline.in Necessary guidance and knowledge sharing resources would be provided by ISMA and on successful completion, the students would be given certificates for it.

In case of research projects, ISMA would provide industry specific knowledge sharing and on completion of projects, consulting avenues would be explored for the concerned group who carried the research project.

Interested persons may send their requests at cmaindiaonline@gmail.com
